UK Pavilion

Why join us?

One of the main reasons exhibitors have given for preferring to exhibit within a UK Pavilion, apart from the united British presence in a fully branded area, is the back up support of the Baby Products Association. Many have found that when dealing with organisers of such a huge international trade show, it is easy to get lost in the crowd and almost impossible to get your voice heard should problems arise. The BPA team is on hand throughout to ensure that any issues are dealt with promptly and to ensure a smooth and trouble-free exhibiting experience.

The BPA is an Accredited Trade Organiser for overseas funding for UKTI and all Trade Access Programme (TAP) funding will be coordinated via the BPA for the 2015 show.
